Statement of Quality

GPW Design Services Limited t/a GPW Recruitment, prides itself on providing the best service possible. To ensure this can happen we are committed to quality of service.

The Quality Representative have documented and implemented operational procedures to ensure a consistent high level of quality service and working practices, of which can be reviewed and objectives set for continual improvement.

These procedures adhere to the requirements of BS EN 9001:2015 Management Systems. This is in place to monitor performance, non-conformance and to help review quality procedures.

The Quality Representative and Managing Director actively participate in Quality Assurance and provide resources, where necessary, to ensure that processes are followed. Specialist input is supplied when required.

Responsibility for Quality Assurance lies with the Quality Representative. They have the authority to implement and report on the effectiveness of this system.
